

Weymouth Weekly Gazette
AND BRAINTREE REPORTER.

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY AT
Weymouth, Norfolk Co., Mass.

C. O. EASTERBROOK, Proprietor.

Terms of Subscription:

One Year, 52 Numbers, in Advance, $2.00

Two Months (26 Numbers) in Advance, $1.00

To any person who will send a sum of nine new subscriptions, $1.00.

No name will be entered on the subscription book without the payment in advance.

Papers are forwarded to the subscribers of the Publishing Company until an explicit order is received for their return, or for the payment of all arrears as is made as required by law.

Job Printing

at short notice, in the best style, and at reasonable rates.

Weymouth Weekly Gazette
AND BRAINTREE REPORTER.

Weymouth, MASS., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1873.

NO. 23.

Weymouth Drug Store.

FRANCIS AMBLER,

DRUGGIST and APOTHECARY,

Commercial St.,

Weymouth.

Choicest

Toilet

Articles,

PERFUMERY, FANCY GOODS,

STATIONERY, both plain and initial,

and every article found in a first-class Drug Store.

It is an art by MAGNETIC BALM.

It is a Balsom of POLYCHIUM.

It is a Balsom of BROMICHIUM.

EMENT
& Vicinity.

ND DESIRABLE STOCK OF Goods,
WEAR,
TOWN OF WEYMOUTH.

consider the above statement a truand Beautiful Spring styles. In the present Painted market select Prints at all times.

BOYS' SHIRTING.

F.

Autumn!

Appliques, Dr. Lakes, Gingham,

ADINGTON POLKIN. Sheer gown in popularity, and is sought in Colors. Mixed Cloth and Stripes.

the best and most reliable brands, to supply themselves with this at our Store, and feel assured that every item is of the best quality.

POWED FULL OF ORNAMENTAL
LIST BELOW.

SETS, GAMES, PUZZLES, BACK-
TICK DEDS, ALBUMS, SHOP-
KEEPERS, WALL PICTURES, HAT
SETS, MATES, ETC.

NOTES.

considerable value.

DUKE TAPERS, a few in which truly deserves the name of the PICTURES in the new styles and the

ND MISSES,

L. WHITE TUCKED, &

considerable value.

<

FRIDAY, OCT. 17, 1873.

ANNUAL MEETING.—The stockholders of the Weymouth A. & L. Society met at Agricultural Hall, South Weymouth, last Tuesday evening, for the election of officers and transaction of other business pertaining to the interests of the Society. President Fogg called the meeting to order, and the Secretary read his annual report, which will be published next week.

The Treasurer, Oran White, Esq., submitted a statement of the financial condition of the Society, from which it appeared that at the last annual meeting the balance in the treasury was $17,240. The receipts for the year ending Oct. 6, 1872, were $4,478, making a total of $6,198. The payments during the year were $3,624.63, of which $515 is deposited in South Weymouth Savings Institution, and of the remainder $1500 can be placed at interest. The report congratulates the Society on its financial prosperity, and says that by prudent management it may accumulate enough in a few years to further improve the grounds and erect a hall suitable for the purposes of the Society.

The election of officers resulted as follows:

President—John S. Fogg.
Vice-Presidents—Josiah Reed, E. S. Bell, Erastus Nash.

Secretary—John D. Dyer.
Treasurer—Oran White.

Directors—John D. Raymond, Ezra Reed, C. C. Tower, S. S. Spear, Alexis Torrey, Albert Turrell, A. Raymond, Jr., Joshua Whitney, C. G. Eastbrook, Elou Sherman, Eli T. Joy, Jas. H. Clapp, Henry Dyer, Charles Merritt, John T. Dyer, L. B. Turrell, George Hollis, Wm. T. Shaw, Martin Vining, Francis Ambler, Silas Warren.

Finance Committee—Ezra Reed, Wm. A. Shaw, Joseph Dyer.

A committee of five was chosen to present a list of officers at the next annual meeting, comprising John O. Foye, Sam' Cleverly, F. S. Torrey, Jos. W. Rogers, A. S. Howe.

The subject of providing accommodations for the visiting bands on the grounds was discussed, and on motion of Wm. H. Sargent, the Sup't of Grounds was instructed to provide better accommodations.

The Secretary was instructed to obtain a sufficient supply of plates for exhibition purposes.

The meeting was then adjourned.

PRODIGIOUS EGG.—Mr. Editor: The hens of Weymouth and Quincy, while laying their eggs, have been noted in the Gazette to lay a single egg, and to Mr. Calvin Young, of Hingham, which produced an egg last week weighing six ounces.

T.

L. O. O. F.—A delegation from Stoughton Lodge, I. O. O. F., numbering about thirty members, paid a fraternal visit to Crescent Lodge of East Weymouth, on Thursday evening of last week. The brethren were warmly welcomed, and after the usual order of exercises, interlarded with music, speeches &c., a hearty and tempting supper was served.

FIREFIGHTERS.—The fire, sharp of the State meet at Peabody next Wednesday, called out the Amazon Company, and their engine to the locality of the fire, which proved to be the stable of Almer Curtis, at East Arlington, which was destroyed, together with a large quantity of hay, wood, &c.

FIREFIGHTERS' MUSTER.—The fire, sharp of the State meet at Peabody next Wednesday, called out the Amazon Company, and their engine to the locality of the fire, which proved to be the stable of Almer Curtis, at East Arlington, which was destroyed, together with a large quantity of hay, wood, &c.

RELIGIOUS.—The services at the Universalist Church will be held morning and evening until further notice.

REAL ESTATE IMPROVEMENTS.—

CONTINUE IN THE DIFFERENT VILLAGES OF WEYMOUTH, AND THE DEMAND FOR DWELLINGS IS STILL UNSUPPLIED, ESPECIALLY AT EAST Weymouth, WHERE PARTIES HAVE BEEN FOR A CONSIDERABLE LENGTH OF TIME, AVAILING THE APPEARANCE OF A VACATED TENEMENT, WITHOUT EVEN A SIGN OF RELIEF. THE LIBERAL ACTION OF THE TOWN AUTHORITIES AND THE PEOPLE IN THE TOWNSHIP, IN TURNING DOWN THESE BILLS, BEARS SPLENDIDLY IN THE LINES OF HOMES, WHICH HAVE BEEN BUILT UPON THE PRESENT AVENUE, ENHANCING THE VALUE OF REAL ESTATE AND ADDING A SATISFACTORY INCREASE TO THE VALUATION OF THE TOWN. ONE OF THE PLEASANTEST AVENUES AT THE EAST VILLAGE IS LAKE STREET, ON THE BORDERS OF WHITMAN'S FOND, WHERE, IN ADDITION TO SEVERAL OTHER DWELLINGS RECENTLY ERECTED, A GRAND MANSI OF FIVE COMPANIES, TAKING PLACE IN THAT TOWNSHIP, WEARIES THAT AMAZON CO., OF WEYMOUTH, WILL ATTEND THE MEETING AT THE CAMPBELL CO., OF SOUTH Weymouth, WHERE THEY WERE TO DISCUSS THE QUESTION OF THEIR ATTENDANCE LAST EVENING. A GENTLEMAN OF THAT PLACE INforms US, THAT AN EFFORT IS BEING MADE TO RAISE MONEY FOR THE SERVICES OF A FULL BAND, AND TO INVITE THE AMAZON BOYS TO PARADE IN COMPANY WITH THE CONQUEROR.

FOR CALIFORNIA.—Letters received from Conductor Haskins and Mr. Stanbury, of the O. C. R. R., are on a tour to the Golden State, mention their arrival at Fort Verde, Arizona, and, with a prospect of completing their journey in due season, if they can escape from the clutches of the numerous friends who persist in interviewing them on the way.

THE RESOLUTIONS ON TAIWAN MONOPOLY WHICH WERE ADOPTED AT THE MEETING IN Weymouth, HAVE BEEN RECENTLY PUBLISHED IN THE BOSTON HERALD, ACCOMPANIED WITH A STATEMENT CONCERNING THE FREIGHT CHARGES OVER THE BOSTON & ALBANY RAILROAD, WHICH IS BEING PUBLISHED IN THE LEADING JOURNALS OF INTEREST TO THE CONSUMERS OF THE STATE, AND CALLS FOR THE PURCHASE OF THAT ROAD BY THE STATE. WE LEARN THAT THE STANDING OF CANDIDATES FOR LEGISLATIVE BODIES THIS SEASON, ON THE SUBJECT OF MONOPOLY, WILL BE CAREFULLY SCRUTINIZED IN THIS SECTION, AND THOSE WHO APPEAR TO BE UNBONDED ON THE GOOSE, WILL STAND A SLIM CHANCE FOR NOMINATION.

MUSICAL INSTRUCTION.—Our South Weymouth readers will notice the card of Miss Faxon in this Gazette, as teacher of piano and organ. Miss Faxon is now ready to receive pupils, and we hope she will speak for a liberal patronage.

TEMPERANCE.—Dr. Charles Jewett will deliver one of his characteristic and telling lectures on the subject of temperance, at the old North church, Weymouth, on Friday evening of next week, 24th instant, at half past seven o'clock, his lecture there, previously announced, having been postponed on account of the severe storm. All friends to the cause are cordially invited to be present.

REMOVED.—Our readers will notice by advertisement that the well known furniture dealers, Messrs. Irk & Alden, have removed to the elegant rooms, No. 179 Tremont St., Boston, where they have on exhibition a large variety of fashionable furniture, which purchasers should not fail to examine. Mr. A. S. Willis still continues to receive a call from this house, and would be pleased to receive a call from his friends in this vicinity.

JOHN J. LOUD.—John J. Loud, Esq., of Weymouth, furnished the following interesting article relative to the First Church, 250th Anniversary of the organization of the first church in Weymouth.

THE AMERICAN QUARTERLY REGISTER.—Vol. 5th, Part 2.

WEYMOUTH BECAME AN INDEPENDENT TOWN Sept. 2, 1635. As early as Sept. 5, or Sept. 6, Capt. Robert Gorham, with a considerable company; and with him came out Mr. William Morris, an English emigrant.

Some remained at Wessagusett, (now Weymouth)—some went to Virginia, and some returned to England with Capt. Gorham.

IN 1644, Capt. John Hobart, a native of Weymouth, and his wife, Mary, were the parents of the first child born in Weymouth.

IN 1645, Capt. John Hobart, their first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1646, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1647, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1648, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1649, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1650, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1651, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1652, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1653, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1654, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1655, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1656, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1657, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1658, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1659, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1660, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1661, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1662, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1663, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1664, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1665, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1666, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1667, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1668, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1669, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1670, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1671, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1672, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1673, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1674, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1675, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1676, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1677, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1678, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1679, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1680, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1681, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1682, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1683, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1684, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1685, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1686, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1687, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

IN 1688, Capt. John Hobart, their

first non-conformist minister, who died in 1651, was succeeded by Mr. John Dyer.

WEEKLY, AND DAILY.
any extended recommendation thousand subscribers, and briefly follows:
and, and always presented in and instructive reading of every elate and scrupulous taste, manners of current literature and instructive articles on and, and wearing no col-best men to offer, and gratifying to those that now republican institutions from their supporters.
for the men, especially the ollar a year will secure it for order to have THE WEEKLY will get the paper for a year.

Only $1.00 a year, no discount
$2.00 a year. A discount of $1.00 a year. Daily circulation eight columns. Price 50 cents, or $8.00 a year.

NEW YORK CITY.

R. R. R.

WAY'S READY

RELIEF

the Worst Pains

in TWENTY MINUTES.

NOT ONE HOUR.

SEASIDE THE ADVERTISING

ONE Suffer with Pain.

LY, AND DAILY.
extended recommends and subscribers, and
as follows:
It is found, con-
and always presented in active reading of every
and scrupulous taste, of current literature instructive articles on and, wearing no col-men to office. It now corrects the now
and American institutions in their supports.
the men, especially the
a year will secure it for
to have THE WEEKLY
of the paper for a year.

1,00 a year, no discounts

1,00 a year. A discount of

Columns. Daily circulation comes a month, or 20 years.

New York City.

R. R.

Y'S READY

CLIEF

Worst Pains

ONE HOUR

TO THE ADVANTAGE

The Suffer with Pain.

is a cure for every Pain.

THE PAIN IS

PAIN REMEDY

THE most excruciating pain and cure. Coughs, colds, &c.

experience in the business.

He hopes to secure and retain your confidence and trust. Prescribed by physicians. Carefully prepared.

COOKED PROVISIONS.

The subscriber would inform the public that from him in the cooking department, having supplies of various kinds for each meal.

READY RELIEF.

INSTANT EASE.

KNIVES.

Infestation of the Bladder.

Congestion of the Lungs and Breathing.

Inflammation of the Heart.

Ophthalmitis.

Catarrh, Inflammation,

Neuritis, Rheumatism,

Arthritis.

DEADLY RELIEF to the part of pain.

and the

part of the body.

and the

EMENT
TO THE & Vicinity.
DESIRABLE STOCK OF Goods,
YEAR,
TOWN OF WEYMOUTH.

the above statement extrayand beautiful Spring styles. In the present Print Boston market
we trust the future will be at all times.

BOYS' SHIRTING.

Autumn!

Apparel, Dr. Linen, Gingham,
AWLINGTON POPPLAR, Shirts
in popularity, and is equal to any in the market.

In addition to these beautiful and comfortable styles, we supply themselves with the best and most reliable trade and assure that every year

they are well supplied.

GOODS.

and Bleached and Damask, Black and Red printed Prints; Linen, Wool, and Cotton, in widths and makes. The prices of our wear, should command special attention.

WEAR. Also a choice variety

SECTIONS TO MATCH, at reasonable prices.

ED FULL OF
ORNAMENTAL
LINT BELOW.

SETS, GAMES, PUZZLES, BACK-
GAMES, ALBUMS, SHIP-
MATES, COMPANIES, SHIP-
SETS, MATCH-
BOXES.

TO MATCH.

FRIDAY, OCT. 31, 1873.

THE BOAT TRADE in this vicinity is becoming very quiet, although stocks in hand are unusually light. The feeling of uncertainty in relation to the future value of stocks, and the consequent hesitancy in filling orders, but it is believed that a more ample supply of goods will soon call for more active operations, and if this should prove to be the case, there seems to be no reasonable ground of apprehension of a shrinkage in values. It is generally conceded that the present pinch of financial affairs is the result of a loss of confidence, and when that is recovered from their "gripes," the wheels of business will again revolve briskly and prosperously.

THE VIENNA EXHIBITION.—The narrative of the principal features of the great exhibition at Vienna, given by Miss R. A. Faxon, at the Union Church, last Friday evening, was an attractive and interesting entertainment to the large number of attendants, and the pecuniary results were very satisfactory, about $65 being received at the door.

ELECTION CAKE.—We are indebted to Mr. Perley, driver for the Weymouth Bakery, for a sample of nice election cake. Its lightness and richness proves that the Howes are not to be beat in their line of trade.

PROSPECTIVE.—An invoice of $2000 worth of bottles received by R. W. Walker, perfumer, of Weymouth, last week, indicates an activity in his new enterprise commensurate with his efforts to furnish a superior quality of perfumes. An order for $600 worth received by Mr. W. from New York, this week, could not be filled, owing to the number of previous orders.

ISABELLE.—Mrs. Tuck, of the Invalid's Retreat, South Weymouth, is meeting with good success in the use of the new Inhaler which she advertises in our columns. The instrument is very convenient in application, and as the inhalation is in the form of dry vapor, the unpleasant and straining effects of liquid inhalations are entirely obviated. Mrs. Tuck will dispense a family right to low rates, and we recommend to our readers an examination of the Inhaler, which can be seen by calling at the Retreat, or at her office in Boston.

THE NORTH WEYMOUTH MUSICAL SOCIETY.—held their first rehearsal of the season on Monday evening in the vestry of the Pilgrim church, under the leadership of J. W. Hartlett, Esq., Committee, Allen Whiting, Nolia Morse, Ansel Barrell, Secretary and Treasurer, T. F. Cleverly. The society have taken up entire new music, and will no doubt give several popular concerts during the winter.

DECEASED.—Gen. Henry Dunham, of Abington, well known to many of our readers as a General in the M. V. M., in years past, died in that place on the 13th instant, aged 67 years.

COUNTY CONVENTIONS.—Both the Republican and Democratic conventions for Norfolk County, nominated John H. Burdakin as candidate for the office of Register of Deeds. The former was easily and roundly considered an especial non-contender in the nomination. In the Republican Convention the vote stood for H. O. Hildreth, 30; J. H. Burdakin, 40, and on motion of Hon. F. A. Hobart Mr. Burdakin's nomination was made unanimous. C. C. Churchill, Esq., was nominated for County Treasurer by acclamation. As was J. H. Chid, Esq., for Register of Probate. Galen Orr of Neponset, was nominated for Commissioner.

LECTURES.—A course of lectures is to be given at the Elm Street Baptist Chapel by Rev. J. C. Baldwin, Chelsea, Nov. 4; Rev. C. V. Swan, Boston, Nov. 18; Rev. H. C. Graves, Providence, Dec. 2; Rev. J. S. Dickerson, D. B. Boston, Dec. 16; Rev. H. C. Rose, Weymouth, Dec. 30; F. W. Smith, Esq., Boston, Jan. 18. The lectures are to be given in the character of open lectures, and are to be given gratis.

The Committee have been initiating in securing good speakers for the course, and the lectures will be instructive and interesting. The price of season tickets $1, thus for a small sum giving a fine series of intellectual entertainments.

SOUTH WEYMOUTH LYCEUM.—The fourth lecture in this popular course was delivered on Tuesday evening, by Rev. Mr. Murray, of Park St. church. Without attempting to describe the lecture, a synopsis of which has already been published in our columns, it will suffice to say that the lecturer interested his subject "The Civilized Heathen" in a masterly manner, and was listened to by a large and appreciative audience. He demonstrated that the heathenism of Japan and the great empire of China was at least entitled to be considered as civilized heathenism, and showed by contrast with the civilization of Christendom that the heathens and the Christians of the world have died millions of people whose religion is the religion of Buddha, are in many respects worthy of the imitation of those who profess the doctrines of Christ.

The lecture of Dr. Dio Lewis, the previous week, was a treat which was highly enjoyed by those who had the courage to face the storm which prevailed on that occasion.

The next lecture will be given by Dr. L. Hayes, the Arctic explorer, on Monday evening, Nov. 3. Dr. Hayes is widely known by his discovery of the open polar sea, and extending his explorations to within 435 miles of the North Pole, the most northerly region ever attained by any explorer. His lecture will be equally interesting with his knowledge of the subject. He captivates equally the old and the young, while the photographic illustrations which accompany the lecture by their beauty and truthfulness to nature constitute an entertainment as attractive as it is instructive.

THE FIREMEN.—A petition has been drawn up in the East Braintree Fire District, for a meeting to see if the District will dispose of the Union engine, and also the engine house. The petition has not received.

The movement to obtain apparatus for protection against fire, in the Union and Pond districts of Braintree, where a Fire District was formed last week, has been quashed by a motion of the meeting last Wednesday evening, to reconsider the whole matter, which was voted, and the meeting adjourned. The vote indicates that the majority of the members of the Districts are of the opinion of one of the speakers at the first meeting, that fire engines are a worse evil than taking the plague in a natural way.

A rumor has been circulated, that Henry Hall, the rubber dealer, "D. B. Hall," has a sum of $300 for the testing of his patent, loss of trial of engines to take place at Braintree. We do not touch for the truth of the rumor.

Braintree.

BRAINTREE CITIZENS' CLUB.—Mr. Ed. Horr:—Notwithstanding the storm, the last meeting of the Club was well attended, and the number of spectators was more than trebled. The meeting was called to order by Mr. Pennington having declined to act as President. Mr. Josephus Shaw was elected to fill that position. After the usual routine of business had been transacted, the question of the evening was taken up for debate.—Resolved, "That Gov. Washburn ought not to be re-elected Governor of Massachusetts." The debate was adjourned.

Mr. BROWN'S VOTE.—The first reason Mr. Washburn ought not to be Governor, is, that he is a Republican, and no Republican deserves to be Governor of Massachusetts. The second reason, he is a back-pay-grabber. We are at present condemning Congressmen of all parties for taking back pay. In 1866 Mr. Brown, of Connecticut, voted for Grant, if he did not vote for him and by his presence favor the retroactive salary bill of that year, did certainly take advantage of it, and pocket his share of the ill-gotten gains.

The issue in the coming election is this State is the temperance question. They tell us that Mr. Washburn is in favor of prohibition. Last year he prayed for a temperance law, and this year he wants Prohibition rather than a long arm. Let Boston stand as an example of his efficiency in enforcing the law.

Three thousand rum shops in the city, and Police Commissioner Bates cannot cross the city to his office without passing a hundred. There is no man who wants to be a Prohibitionist, but he wants Prohibition rather than a long arm.

Let Boston stand as an example of his efficiency in enforcing the law.

Church in Braintree, Rev. E. P. Larrabee, Pastor, Dr. E. Alden, Delegate.

Church in Colchester, Rev. M. A. Stevens, Pastor, Dr. J. N. Nash, Delegate.

Church in Arlington, Rev. Geo. E. Franklin, Dr. J. L. Nash, Delegate.

Church in North Arlington, Dr. James Ford, Delegate.

Church in Braintree, Rev. Elias Hayward, Delegate.

Hingham, Rev. Austin S. Garver, Pastor, C. S. Hunt, Delegate.

Church in South Weymouth, Rev. Geo. F. Stanton, Pastor, Dr. Jacob Loring, Delegate.

Union Church, Weymouth Landing, Dea. S. W. Nash, Delegate.

Union Church, South Weymouth, Rev. James McLean, Pastor, Dea. John S. Cobb, Delegate.

Church in Quincy, Rev. Edward Norton, Acting Pastor, Dea. E. Clapp, Delegate.

Church in East Weymouth, Rev. E. P. McElroy, Pastor, Dea. Alvin Raymond, Delegate.

Church in Egerton Church, North Weymouth, Rev. L. Voorhees, Pastor, Dr. David Pratt, Delegate.

Church at Lowell's Corner, Dea. Asa Whitman, Delegate.

Church in Quincy, Rev. Edward Norton, Acting Pastor, Dea. E. Clapp, Delegate.

Church in Braintree, Rev. J. C. Larrabee, Dea. S. L. Jones, Pastor, Dr. N. Weymouth, and Prof. W. S. Tyler, D. D., of Amherst College.

Mr. LOCKE said that if he lived until next Tuesday, he should vote for Mr. Washburn, in support of his policies.

He honored himself and honored the State, and since elected Governor he has saved the citizens many dollars by vetoing a single railroad bill.

Mr. Washburn is an out and out Republican.

He has not helped us, but he has not enforced the law in Boston? Why did not Mr. Gaston enforce it when Mayor?

The Democratic party did not then want it enforced, and the great money influence of Boston to-day makes it impossible for the Republicans to enforce it. The law is excellent for Braintree, but almost a failure.

Mr. Gaston has been looking with great interest and interest in the powers that rule, and it would not be right, under the circumstances, to favor the election of Mr. Washburn. Have in times past acted wholly with the Republican party, believing it to be a party seeking the good of the entire country; but latterly, as a party of good principles, and with a record of high promise, but having obtained power have forgotten them. The Democratic party is not any better; when they obtain power, their promises dwindle away. But if the Democrats were successful in Massachusetts, this year, they would take ground far in advance of the Republicans, and he was almost tempted to vote for them.

Mr. Gaston, if he would not then want it enforced, and the great money influence of Boston to-day makes it impossible for the Republicans to enforce it. The law is excellent for Braintree, but almost a failure.

Mr. Gaston has been looking with great interest and interest in the powers that rule, and it would not be right, under the circumstances, to favor the election of Mr. Washburn. Have in times past acted wholly with the Republican party, believing it to be a party seeking the good of the entire country; but latterly, as a party of good principles, and with a record of high promise, but having obtained power have forgotten them. The Democratic party is not any better; when they obtain power, their promises dwindle away. But if the Democrats were successful in Massachusetts, this year, they would take ground far in advance of the Republicans, and he was almost tempted to vote for them.

Mr. Gaston has been looking with great interest and interest in the powers that rule, and it would not be right, under the circumstances, to favor the election of Mr. Washburn. Have in times past acted wholly with the Republican party, believing it to be a party seeking the good of the entire country; but latterly, as a party of good principles, and with a record of high promise, but having obtained power have forgotten them. The Democratic party is not any better; when they obtain power, their promises dwindle away. But if the Democrats were successful in Massachusetts, this year, they would take ground far in advance of the Republicans, and he was almost tempted to vote for them.

Mr. Gaston has been looking with great interest and interest in the powers that rule, and it would not be right, under the circumstances, to favor the election of Mr. Washburn. Have in times past acted wholly with the Republican party, believing it to be a party seeking the good of the entire country; but latterly, as a party of good principles, and with a record of high promise, but having obtained power have forgotten them. The Democratic party is not any better; when they obtain power, their promises dwindle away. But if the Democrats were successful in Massachusetts, this year, they would take ground far in advance of the Republicans, and he was almost tempted to vote for them.

Mr. Gaston has been looking with great interest and interest in the powers that rule, and it would not be right, under the circumstances, to favor the election of Mr. Washburn. Have in times past acted wholly with the Republican party, believing it to be a party seeking the good of the entire country; but latterly, as a party of good principles, and with a record of high promise, but having obtained power have forgotten them. The Democratic party is not any better; when they obtain power, their promises dwindle away. But if the Democrats were successful in Massachusetts, this year, they would take ground far in advance of the Republicans, and he was almost tempted to vote for them.

Mr. Gaston has been looking with great interest and interest in the powers that rule, and it would not be right, under the circumstances, to favor the election of Mr. Washburn. Have in times past acted wholly with the Republican party, believing it to be a party seeking the good of the entire country; but latterly, as a party of good principles, and with a record of high promise, but having obtained power have forgotten them. The Democratic party is not any better; when they obtain power, their promises dwindle away. But if the Democrats were successful in Massachusetts, this year, they would take ground far in advance of the Republicans, and he was almost tempted to vote for them.

Mr. Gaston has been looking with great interest and interest in the powers that rule, and it would not be right, under the circumstances, to favor the election of Mr. Washburn. Have in times past acted wholly with the Republican party, believing it to be a party seeking the good of the entire country; but latterly, as a party of good principles, and with a record of high promise, but having obtained power have forgotten them. The Democratic party is not any better; when they obtain power, their promises dwindle away. But if the Democrats were successful in Massachusetts, this year, they would take ground far in advance of the Republicans, and he was almost tempted to vote for them.

Mr. Gaston has been looking with great interest and interest in the powers that rule, and it would not be right, under the circumstances, to favor the election of Mr. Washburn. Have in times past acted wholly with the Republican party, believing it to be a party seeking the good of the entire country; but latterly, as a party of good principles, and with a record of high promise, but having obtained power have forgotten them. The Democratic party is not any better; when they obtain power, their promises dwindle away. But if the Democrats were successful in Massachusetts, this year, they would take ground far in advance of the Republicans, and he was almost tempted to vote for them.

Mr. Gaston has been looking with great interest and interest in the powers that rule, and it would not be right, under the circumstances, to favor the election of Mr. Washburn. Have in times past acted wholly with the Republican party, believing it to be a party seeking the good of the entire country; but latterly, as a party of good principles, and with a record of high promise, but having obtained power have forgotten them. The Democratic party is not any better; when they obtain power, their promises dwindle away. But if the Democrats were successful in Massachusetts, this year, they would take ground far in advance of the Republicans, and he was almost tempted to vote for them.

Mr. Gaston has been looking with great interest and interest in the powers that rule, and it would not be right, under the circumstances, to favor the election of Mr. Washburn. Have in times past acted wholly with the Republican party, believing it to be a party seeking the good of the entire country; but latterly, as a party of good principles, and with a record of high promise, but having obtained power have forgotten them. The Democratic party is not any better; when they obtain power, their promises dwindle away. But if the Democrats were successful in Massachusetts, this year, they would take ground far in advance of the Republicans, and he was almost tempted to vote for them.

Mr. Gaston has been looking with great interest and interest in the powers that rule, and it would not be right, under the circumstances, to favor the election of Mr. Washburn. Have in times past acted wholly with the Republican party, believing it to be a party seeking the good of the entire country; but latterly, as a party of good principles, and with a record of high promise, but having obtained power have forgotten them. The Democratic party is not any better; when they obtain power, their promises dwindle away. But if the Democrats were successful in Massachusetts, this year, they would take ground far in advance of the Republicans, and he was almost tempted to vote for them.

Mr. Gaston has been looking with great interest and interest in the powers that rule, and it would not be right, under the circumstances, to favor the election of Mr. Washburn. Have in times past acted wholly with the Republican party, believing it to be a party seeking the good of the entire country; but latterly, as a party of good principles, and with a record of high promise, but having obtained power have forgotten them. The Democratic party is not any better; when they obtain power, their promises dwindle away. But if the Democrats were successful in Massachusetts, this year, they would take ground far in advance of the Republicans, and he was almost tempted to vote for them.

Mr. Gaston has been looking with great interest and interest in the powers that rule, and it would not be right, under the circumstances, to favor the election of Mr. Washburn. Have in times past acted wholly with the Republican party, believing it to be a party seeking the good of the entire country; but latterly, as a party of good principles, and with a record of high promise, but having obtained power have forgotten them. The Democratic party is not any better; when they obtain power, their promises dwindle away. But if the Democrats were successful in Massachusetts, this year, they would take ground far in advance of the Republicans, and he was almost tempted to vote for them.

Mr. Gaston has been looking with great interest and interest in the powers that rule, and it would not be right, under the circumstances, to favor the election of Mr. Washburn. Have in times past acted wholly with the Republican party, believing it to be a party seeking the good of the entire country; but latterly, as a party of good principles, and with a record of high promise, but having obtained power have forgotten them. The Democratic party is not any better; when they obtain power, their promises dwindle away. But if the Democrats were successful in Massachusetts, this year, they would take ground far in advance of the Republicans, and he was almost tempted to vote for them.

Mr. Gaston has been looking with great interest and interest in the powers that rule, and it would not be right, under the circumstances, to favor the election of Mr. Washburn. Have in times past acted wholly with the Republican party, believing it to be a party seeking the good of the entire country; but latterly, as a party of good principles, and with a record of high promise, but having obtained power have forgotten them. The Democratic party is not any better; when they obtain power, their promises dwindle away. But if the Democrats were successful in Massachusetts, this year, they would take ground far in advance of the Republicans, and he was almost tempted to vote for them.

Mr. Gaston has been looking with great interest and interest in the powers that rule, and it would not be right, under the circumstances, to favor the election of Mr. Washburn. Have in times past acted wholly with the Republican party, believing it to be a party seeking the good of the entire country; but latterly, as a party of good principles, and with a record of high promise, but having obtained power have forgotten them. The Democratic party is not any better; when they obtain power, their promises dwindle away. But if the Democrats were successful in Massachusetts, this year, they would take ground far in advance of the Republicans, and he was almost tempted to vote for them.

Mr. Gaston has been looking with great interest and interest in the powers that rule, and it would not be right, under the circumstances, to favor the election of Mr. Washburn. Have in times past acted wholly with the Republican party, believing it to be a party seeking the good of the entire country; but latterly, as a party of good principles, and with a record of high promise, but having obtained power have forgotten them. The Democratic party is not any better; when they obtain power, their promises dwindle away. But if the Democrats were successful in Massachusetts, this year, they would take ground far in advance of the Republicans, and he was almost tempted to vote for them.

Mr. Gaston has been looking with great interest and interest in the powers that rule, and it would not be right, under the circumstances, to favor the election of Mr. Washburn. Have in times past acted wholly with the Republican party, believing it to be a party seeking the good of the entire country; but latterly, as a party of good principles, and with a record of high promise, but having obtained power have forgotten them. The Democratic party is not any better; when they obtain power, their promises dwindle away. But if the Democrats were successful in Massachusetts, this year, they would take ground far in advance of the Republicans, and he was almost tempted to vote for them.

Mr. Gaston has been looking with great interest and interest in the powers that rule, and it would not be right, under the circumstances, to favor the election of Mr. Washburn. Have in times past acted wholly with the Republican party, believing it to be a party seeking the good of the entire country; but latterly, as a party of good principles, and with a record of high promise, but having obtained power have forgotten them. The Democratic party is not any better; when they obtain power, their promises dwindle away. But if the Democrats were successful in Massachusetts, this year, they would take ground far in advance of the Republicans, and he was almost tempted to vote for them.

Mr. Gaston has been looking with great interest and interest in the powers that rule, and it would not be right, under the circumstances, to favor the election of Mr. Washburn. Have in times past acted wholly with the Republican party, believing it to be a party seeking the good of the entire country; but latterly, as a party of good principles, and with a record of high promise, but having obtained power have forgotten them. The Democratic party is not any better; when they obtain power, their promises dwindle away. But if the Democrats were successful in Massachusetts, this year, they would take ground far in advance of the Republicans, and he was almost tempted to vote for them.

Mr. Gaston has been looking with great interest and interest in the powers that rule, and it would not be right, under the circumstances, to favor the election of Mr. Washburn. Have in times past acted wholly with the Republican party, believing it to be a party seeking the good of the entire country; but latterly, as a party of good principles, and with a record of high promise, but having obtained power have forgotten them. The Democratic party is not any better; when they obtain power, their promises dwindle away. But if the Democrats were successful in Massachusetts, this year, they would take ground far in advance of the Republicans, and he was almost tempted to vote for them.

Mr. Gaston has been looking with great interest and interest in the powers that rule, and it would not be right, under the circumstances, to favor the election of Mr. Washburn. Have in times past acted wholly with the Republican party, believing it to be a party seeking the good of the entire country; but latterly, as a party of

